Dear Russ:

Many thanks for your note of May 6.
I did, indeed, mean what I said when I invited you to spend a few days in the shop here. If you will drop me a note and let me know when you can be free to come to Washington for a couple of days,
I will go ahead with the appropriate arrangements accordingly.

I will be looking forward to seeing you again soon.

Faithfully,

Allen W. Dulles

Dear Allen:

Just a few lines to thank you for your kindness to me last Friday. As always, it was good to see you again even under the sad circumstances of our meeting. The services for John were perfect and I know how much you did to help Helen on many of the details.

If you really meant it (as I am sure you did), I am going to try to take you up on your invitation to spend a few days in your shop.

With renewed thanks and kindest personal regards, I am

Very sincerely,

Russ.
